THE EFFECT OF WIND ENERGY DEVELOPMENT ON BATS

Is wind energy really as green as we think? Article by Jaclyn Aliperti & Morgan Nabhan Wind energy has gained widespread attention as a solution to reduce greenhouse gases. By 2020, it is expected that 12% of this countrys energy will be produced by wind turbines. 1 While this may seem like a step in the right direction, there are environmental consequences. Bats, which play an enormous and often under...
